

DMG MORI SEIKI

AKTIENGESELLSCHAFT

Precision technology: An employee of DECKEL MAHO in Seebach aligning the tool changer of an HSC 30 linear. This high-speed cutting precision centre is used especially in modern medical technology for the production of joint components or surgical instruments.

DMG MORI SEIKI

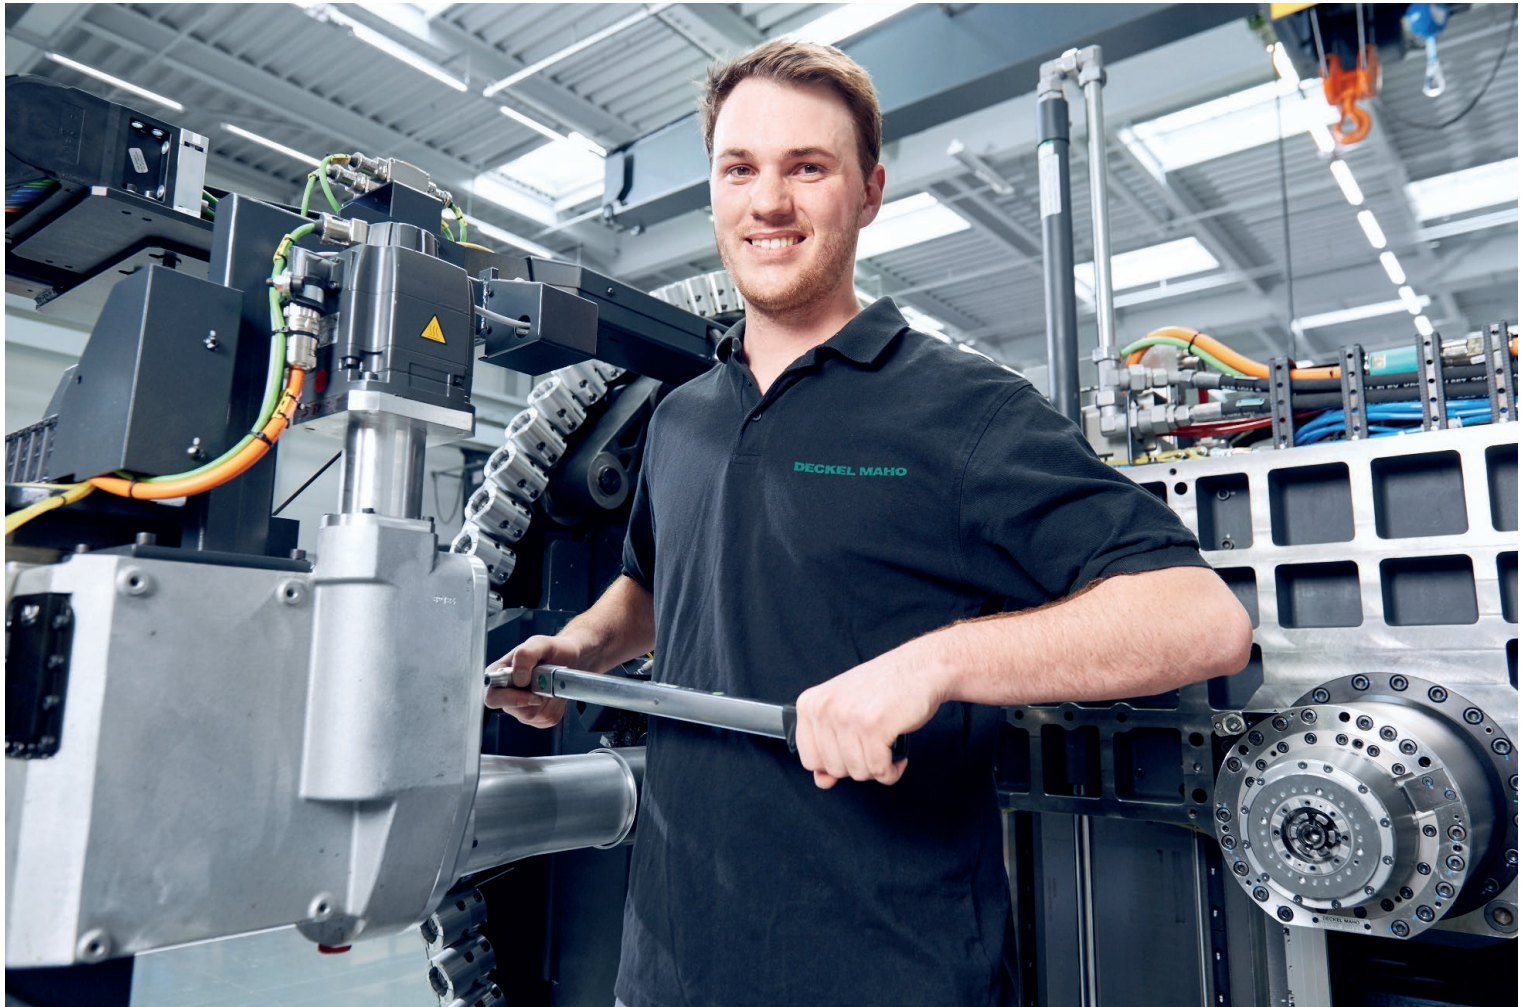

AKTIENGESELLSCHAFT

Quality assurance: An employee of DECKEL MAHO in Seebach screw connecting the energy supply to the DMF 260 | 11 universal milling machine, which is used in aviation and aerospace among other industries.

DMG MORI SEIKI

AKTIENGESELLSCHAFT

Best trainee: Marcel Holderied received honours from the Chamber of Industry and Commerce as the best industrial mechanic in the Bavarian Allgäu region – he is seen here during the final assembly on the DMC 60 H linear. This highly complex horizontal processing centre of DECKEL MAHO Pfronten is used primarily in the automotive industry.

DMG MORI SEIKI

AKTIENGESELLSCHAFT

Efficient flow assembly: Employees of GILDEMEISTER Drehmaschinen GmbH in Bielefeld assembling the CTX beta 800 TC and other machines in 14 cycles. This high-precision turning and milling centre won the Innovations Prize in 2015 and it is used particularly in mechanical and plant engineering.