Innovations as the way out of the crisis: "Due to the corona crisis, our customers are speeding up the transition to the digital factory. This strengthens our intention to further expand our future fields of Automation, Digitization and Additive Manufacturing," say Christian Thönes, Chairman of the Executive Board of DMG MORI AKTIENGESELLSCHAFT. "Investing in innovations, and especially in digitization, is the only way out of the crisis. The economic situation is and remains challenging. But we are well positioned and will continue to have positive results."
